Collection Description

Biographical Note
John A. Harris, Confederate soldier, died near Atlanta, Georgia, July 28, 1864. He enlisted December 11, 1861, and served with Company D, 19th Louisiana Infantry Regiment as a private in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Tennessee, and Georgia. Harris apparently owned slaves and had a limited education.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of printed typescripts and a microfilm copy of the papers of John A. Harris from 1854-1865. The papers consist mainly of correspondence written by Harris to his wife, Rebecca, and other family members, and tell of camp conditions, his activities, illness, and a train accident. The final letter (July 30, 1864; to Harris's wife) tells of Harris's death. The typescript copies are microfilmed along with the originals.

Arrangement Note
Arranged in chronological order.
