William H. Hood, Jr. (1841-1890) and John Hood (d. 1877), both served as soldiers during the Civil War.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of a microfilm copy of materials relating to Rebecca Hood from 1862-1865. The collection includes a letter by William Hood, Jr. and a pamphlet by Rebecca Hood. William Hood's letter, dated 1862, was written to his family while he was in the Loudon, Tennessee hospital. The pamphlet contains Rebecca Hood's memoirs (undated) and recount her experiences during the war while at home in Cartersville, Georgia; the enlistment and service of her sons in the Confederate Army; Sherman's advance toward Atlanta; and her contact with Union soldiers.
