Collection Description

Historical Note
Independent Presbyterian Church, Savannah, Georgia, has been located at Bull and Oglethorpe Streets since ca. 1800. The church's first pastor was Henry Kollock. On April 6, 1889, the church was destroyed by fire and was restored through funds and restoration efforts provided by the membership.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of a microfilm copy of the records of the Independent Presbyterian Church in Savannah, Georgia, from 1800-1960. The records consist of minutes of the board of trustees (1803-1921), board of deacons (1911-1941), men's society (1901-1923), Savannah Sabbath School Teachers Society (1815-1913), Sunday school (1828-1895) and African Sunday School (1836-1839; 1844), Woman's Foreign Missionary Society (1904-1922), Session of the Church (1800-1944), and the Savannah Presbytery (1955-1956); and treasurers' records (1829-1952); pew holder lists (1822-1884); attendance rolls (includes weather conditions for 1861-1890); and lists of church officers and members (1816-1944) including African American members, World War II casualties, marriages, deaths, and baptisms; and restoration records (1889-1992) and construction correspondence (1924-1925). There are also handbooks, bulletins, reports, and pamphlets; minutes from the Thunderbolt Presbyterian Church (1922-1948); and clippings on the organization of the Eastern Heights Presbyterian Church. Photographs and reports of Kashing Mission (China; 1918-1924) are included in some minutes and reports or in separate folders.

Arrangement Note
Arranged by record type.
