Source

Purchased from Bookmark/Robert Langmuir, 2017.

Custodial History

Forms part of the Robert Langmuir African American photograph collection. The Rose Library acquired this collection from Robert Langmuir in his capacity as a rare book and manuscript dealer but did not integrate it with the Langmuir collection because of its volume, cohesion, and assumed common provenance.

Citation

[after identification of item(s)], Shotzki Jones photographs, Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Appraisal Note

Acquired by Curator of African American Collections, Pellom McDaniels, III, as part of the Rose Library's holdings in African American Culutre and History.

Processing

Arranged and described at the file level by Faiza Rahman, Leigh Schlecht, and Sarah Quigley, 2018. Most of the wedding photographs are described according to the physical appearance of the brides as opposed to the grooms because there is greater variation in the brides' dress..

Collection Description

Biographical Note

Shotzki Jones was an African American photographer hailing from New Jersey.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of prints, negatives, and a single slide of photographs taken by Shotzki Jones from circa 1966-1991. The majority of the collection is negatives. Images document weddings and other events, portraiture, and fashion models.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by format then in alphabetical order by subject.
