Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

Robert Tyre "Bobby" Jones, lawyer and golfer, was born March 17, 1902, in Atlanta, Georgia, and died on December 18, 1971, in Atlanta, Georgia. Jones won the Grand Slam of golf and the Sullivan Award as outstanding amateur athlete (1930), planned the Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club (1931) where he played his first Masters Tournament (1934), and his final Masters Tournament (1968). He was associated with the Atlanta law firm of Jones, Bird and Howell.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of materials relating to Bobby Jones from 1920-2002. The collection contains visual materials including photographs, drawings, and video cassettes and newsreels, documenting Bobby Jones, the Grand Slam (1930), the Masters Tournaments (1965-1969), prominent persons, and the sports of golf, hunting, and fishing; clippings about Jones; articles by or about Jones; magazines (including foreign) about golf; memorabilia including plaques, certificates, golf clubs, and souvenirs; manuscripts including Bobby Jones on Golf, drafts of magazine articles by Jones, and research papers on Jones; and audio tapes document a Robert W. Woodruff dinner (1959), an interview with Jones (1960), and his 25th anniversary in golf.

The following books are illustrated with photographs drawn extensively from the collection: Davis, Martin, The Greatest of Them All: The Legend of Bobby Jones (1996); Lewis, Catherine, Considerable Passions (2000); and Matthew, Sidney, Life and Time of Bobby Jones (1995).

Arrangement Note
