Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.
their advertising. Also included are letters between Robb and Harrison Jones, Executive Vice President of Coca-Cola, about using this watercolor and their subsequent decision not to use it.

Arrangement Note
Arranged in chronological order.