Collection Description*Biographical Note

Harvey E. Klehr (1933- ) is the Andrew W. Mellon Professor of Politics and History at Emory University. He was born on December 25, 1945 in Newark, New Jersey. He received his undergraduate degree from Franklin and Marshall College in 1967, and obtained a Ph.D. from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1971. Klehr has written over a dozen books on the history of American communism and Soviet espionage in the United States.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of research files accumulated by Harvey Klehr relating to American communism and Soviet espionage in the United States. The files include printed materials, Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) files, materials relating to the 1979 Greensboro (N.C.) Massacre, collected research files, and unprocessed additions. Printed material includes selected radical periodicals, books and pamphlets accumulated by Klehr during his research. The FBI files, released under the terms of FOIA, concern organizations, topics, and individuals associated with American Communism. The Greensboro, North Carolina files relate to Walters vs. Butkovich, United States District Court for the Middle District of North Carolina, 1984. The unprocessed additions include oral history interviews with Oliver Carlson and Charles Taylor; photocopies of early files of the Communist Party of the United States of America including letters, minutes, and reports from 1921-1922; "most secret" communications between Communist Party operatives from 1934-1937; Russian archives materials; photocopies of scholarly articles on communism in the United States of America, as well as Soviet espionage; subject files on individuals involved in the Amerasia Affair; collected materials on the dissolution of the Communist Party of the United States of America, including obituaries and clippies; and correspondence.

Arrangement Note

Organized into five series: (1) Printed material, (2) Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) files, (3) Greensboro (N.C.) Massacre case files, (4) Collected research materials, and (5) Audiovisual materials.
