Appraisal Note

Acquired by Curator of Modern Political and Historical Collections, Randy Gue, as part of the Rose Library's holdings in LGBTQ history and culture. Gue acquired the collection specifically to document Land's involvement in the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), and material not related to the HRC or LGBTQ activism in Atlanta was not selected for acquisition by the Rose Library. All material that formed the original gift has been retained.

Processing

Arranged and described at the collection level by Carrie Hintz, July, 2019.

Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

Andrew Land is an Atlanta (Georgia) based realtor and LGBTQ activist. He holds degrees in business management and history from Clemson University (Clemson, South Carolina). Land has held leadership positions in the Human Rights Campaign (HRC) since the early 2000s, including chairing the Annual Dinner and Silent Auction Committee, serving on the HRC Atlanta Steering Committee, and serving on the Board of Governors for the national organization. He lives in Atlanta with his husband and dog.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of files relating to Land's involvement in the leadership of the Human Rights Campaign (HRC), including correspondence, marketing material, HRC reports, clippings, and alphabetical files. Alphabetical files are related to HRC activities, both Atlanta and national, and may document fundraising activities, events and programs, or notable national news about issues facing LGBTQ individuals. A typical file includes printed email correspondence, memos, event records, clippings, and publicity or marketing material.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
