Citation

[after identification of item(s)], Literary miscellany collection, Stuart A. Rose Manuscript, Archives, and Rare Book Library, Emory University.

Processing

Initially arranged and described at the folder level by Sarah Quigley, December 2016 and July 2017.

This collection contains material that was originally part of Miscellaneous Collections A-B and D-E. In 2016-2017, these collections were discontinued and the contents dispersed amongst other collections by subject or provenance to improve accessibility. Box 1 and Box 2, folders 1-31 were originally part of Miscellaneous Collection E, Literary manuscripts. Some materials in box 3 were originally part of Miscellaneous Collections A-B and D.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

The Rose Library continues to acquire material for this collection from multiple sources and regularly adds new items.

Collection Description

Scope and Content Note

This artificial collection is comprised of individual manuscripts or small collections of material relating to poets, novelists, and other authors. Most items are letters between authors and their associates, though there are some literary works as well. Authors in the collection are primarily British and American and include Edwin Arnold, Robert Burns, Flannery O'Connor, Paul Francis Farmer, William Miller, and J. Francis Turner among others.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.
