Long. He attended High School at Shreveport and spent a semester at University of Oklahoma Law School and eight months at Tulane University Law School. He passed a special bar examination (May 1915) and began practice at Winnfield. Two years before (1913) he married Rose McConnell of Shreveport. They had three children - Rose, Russell and Palmer. He served as public service commissioner 1921-1926 and was elected governor of Louisiana in 1928. In 1930 he was elected to the U.S. Senate. He broke with President Franklin D. Roosevelt whose first candidacy he had actively supported. He was shot by Dr. Carl A. Weiss on September 3, 1935 and died two days later. He organized (January 1934) a Share-Our-Wealth Society which won him national support. For a year before his death he exercised unprecedented control of the government of the state of Louisiana.

Scope and Content Note

The collection includes material relating to the career and the death of Huey Pierce Long from 1926-1938. Included also are several items relating to a friendly controversy between Long and Mr. Julian La Rose Harris of the Atlanta Constitution on the subject of "Potlikker and Cornpone."

Arrangement Note

Arranged in chronological order.
