Collection Description

Biographical Note

Irish poet Derek Mahon met Louis Asekoff in the early 1960s while they were students at Trinity College in Dublin. Louis Asekoff (1939-), poet and educator, currently coordinates the M.F.A. Program in Poetry at Brooklyn College. His poems have appeared in many magazines, including The New Yorker , Poetry , Tikkun , Salmagundi , Triquarterly , and American Poetry Review . He has twice received The American Poetry Review Jerome Shestack Prize for Poetry. He has published two books of poetry, Dreams of a Work (1994) and North Star (1997) by Orchises Press, Washington, D.C. He has received poetry fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, the New York Foundation for the Arts, and The Fund for Poetry.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of letters and postcards from Derek Mahon to Louis Asekoff from 1963-1988 and reflects their close literary and personal friendship which began when both were students at Trinity College, Dublin in the early sixties. Mahon's letters include references to poets and poetry, literary ambitions, teaching plans, reading tours, personal relationships, and visits with Asekoff. The collection also includes typscripts of several of Mahon's poems.
