Collection Description

Biographical Note
Frederick Marryat (1792-1848), was a British naval captain and author of novels, essays and articles.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of the papers of Frederick Marryat from 1830-1842. The papers include letters written by Marryat to his wife Kate, his sub-editor Edward Howard, his editor Charles Ollier and others. The letters discuss personal affairs and literary matters regarding the publication of his novels and articles. Of particular interest are two letters to Edward Howard, Marryat’s sub-editor on the Metropolitan Magazine, concerning a serious dispute between them over editing policies. He also writes at length about his stay in Germany (cira 1835) and about his disgust with British parliamentary proceedings.
