Collection Description

Biographical Note

Robert Tyre ("Bobby") Jones (1902-1971), lawyer and golfer, was born in Atlanta, Georgia to Clara Thomas and Robert Permedus Jones. In 1930, Jones won the Open Championship, the Amateur Championship, the U. S. Open, and the U. S. Amateur, an achievement dubbed the Grand Slam of golf; he was the only golfer to have done so. He also won the Sullivan Award for outstanding amateur athlete (1930), founded the Augusta (Ga.) National Golf Club (1931), and organized the Masters Invitational Tournament.

Jones attended Georgia Technical Institute where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering in 1922. He also earned a degree in English Literature from Harvard and attended Emory University Law School, passing the Georgia Bar in 1928. He was associated with the Atlanta law firm of Jones, Bird and Howell.

Sidney L. Matthew is a Tallahassee, Florida attorney and historian on Bobby Jones. Matthew has written and edited ten books about the Atlanta golfer and penned articles about Jones for Golf, Golf Digest, Links, British Golf Monthly, and British Golf World. Matthew produced an hour-long documentary about Jones entitled The Life and Times of Bobby Jones in 1995. The show aired on CBS before the Masters Tournament for four years, and the Golf Channel has broadcast it each year since 2001.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of Matthew's collection of Bobby Jones related material, audiovisual material related to Matthew's golf film projects, and Matthew's research files and writings.

The Bobby Jones collection series consists of materials collected by Sidney L. Matthew relating to Georgia golfer Bobby Jones, including photographs, newspapers, magazines, scrapbooks, correspondence, memorabilia, and audiovisual material. The photographs consist of images of and related to golf and Georgia golfer Bobby Jones from 1864-2007, both originals and reproductions, some undated. Subjects include Bobby Jones, the Jones family, Augusta National Golf Club, the Masters Tournament, St. Andrews Golf Club, the British Amateur Championship, the British Open Championship, the United States Amateur Championship, the United States Open Championship, East Lake Country Club, Watts Gunn, Alexa Stirling, O.B. Keeler, the Walker Cup, Dwight D. Eisenhower, and Robert W. Woodruff. Of particular note are original photographs of Bobby Jones and other historical figures in golf, including Harry Vardon and Walter Hagen. The newspapers track the entirety of Bobby Jones' golf career, from his first minor championships in the 1910s to his development of the Masters' Invitational Tournament at Augusta National Golf Club in the 1930s. The periodicals include 98 issues of The American Golfer from 1922-1935, which are edited by Grantland Rice, O.B. Keeler, and Bobby Jones himself. Correspondence is to and from Bobby Jones and his contemporaries and family members, primarily dating from the 1920s-1970s. Of particular note are Bobby Jones' correspondence; the autographed scorecard from a doubles match with Bobby Jones, Dot Kirby, Charley Yates, and Joyce Wethered; and O.B. Keeler's scrapbook.

Audiovisual series consists of audiovisual material relating to Sidney L. Matthew and his various golf-oriented projects and interests. These include VHS and Betacam SP tapes of The Life and Times of Bobby Jones as it was being edited and audio recordings of the movie's dialogue and voice-over. Also included are research tapes, such as original footage of Bobby Jones playing in tournaments in the 1920s; production tapes of other works; and Matthew's interviews and television appearances.

The Matthew series consists of the personal papers of Sidney L. Matthew, including photographs, correspondence, printed material, Matthew's research files on Bobby Jones, and drafts of Matthew's writings. The photographs are of Sidney L. Matthew, the Yates family (prominent Atlanta-area golfers and businessmen with personal ties to Bobby Jones), members of the Golf Collectors Society, and others. Matthew's correspondence is personal, research, and business-oriented, containing personal letters and project details for Matthew's various collaborative philanthropic initiatives. The printed material consists of magazines, newspapers, and other printed material relating to Sidney L. Matthew's publications, projects, and research interests. Also included are Matthew's research files, including correspondence and research notes relating to his written works, films, interviews, and other projects. Of particular note are correspondence with golfers such as Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, research notes concerning Matthew's philanthropic projects with the East Lake Community Foundation, and drafts of Matthew's writings on Bobby Jones and other golfers.

Arrangement Note

Organized into three series: (1) Bobby Jones collection, (2) Audiovisual material, and (3) Sidney L. Matthew papers.

Subseries 1.2*Printed material, 1896-2003*Boxes 18-32, 168-186, 188-191; OBV1*Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of newspapers and periodicals which feature articles on or relating to Bobby Jones and golf in the United States and Canada from 1896-2003. The newspapers track the entirety of Bobby Jones' golf career, from his first minor championships in the 1910s to his development of the Masters' Invitational Tournament at Augusta National Golf Club in the 1930s. Of note are three syndicated columns written by Bobby Jones from 1927-1935: "Bobby Jones Says," "My Theories of Golf," and "Secrets of the Master." The periodicals include 98 issues of The American Golfer from 1922-1935, which are edited by Grantland Rice, O.B. Keeler, and Bobby Jones himself.

Subseries 2.2

Production and research tapes, 1930-2005

Box AV1-AV8, and AV10

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of production videos for The Life and Times of Bobby Jones and other works, including a public service announcement for East Lake and documentaries for CBS and the United States Golf Association; and the research footage for those works. Included in the research tapes are interviews with various golfers, including Tommy Barnes, Watts Gunn, Gene Sarazen, and Charlie Yates; and original footage of Bobby Jones playing competitively in the 1920s.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.

Restrictions on Access

Special restrictions apply: Use copies have not been made for audiovisual material in this collection. Researchers must contact the Rose Library at least two weeks in advance for access to these items. Collection restrictions, copyright limitations, or technical complications may hinder the Rose Library's ability to provide access to audiovisual material.

Series 3
Sidney L. Matthew papers, 1862-2015
Boxes 35-167, OP590-OP601

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of the personal papers of Sidney L. Matthew, including photographs, correspondence, printed material, Matthew's research files on Bobby Jones, and drafts of Matthew's writings. The photographs are of Sidney L. Matthew, the Yates family (prominent Atlanta-area golfers and businessmen with personal ties to Bobby Jones), members of the Golf Collectors Society, and others. Matthew's correspondence is personal, research, and business-oriented, containing personal letters and project details for Matthew's various collaborative philanthropic initiatives. The printed material consists of magazines, newspapers, and other printed material relating to Sidney L. Matthew's publications, projects, and research interests. Also included are Matthew's research files, including correspondence and research notes relating to his written works, films, interviews, and other projects. Of particular note are correspondence with golfers such as Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer, research notes concerning Matthew's philanthropic projects with the East Lake Community Foundation, and drafts of Matthew's writings on Bobby Jones and other golfers.

Arrangement Note

Organized into six subseries: (3.1) Matthew photographs, (3.2) Matthew correspondence, (3.3) Printed material, (3.4) Research files, (3.5) Writings, and (3.6) Born digital material.

Terms Governing Use and Reproduction

Special restrictions apply: The collection contains some copies of original materials held by other institutions; these copies may not be reproduced without the permission of the owner of the originals.

Restrictions on Access

Special restrictions apply: Researchers must contact the Rose Library in advance for access to unprocessed born digital materials in this collection. Collection restrictions, copyright limitations, or technical complications may hinder the Rose Library's ability to provide access to unprocessed born digital materials.

Subseries 3.2

Matthew correspondence, 1987-2011

Box 36-38

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of correspondence to, from, and about Sidney L. Matthew. Matthew's correspondence is personal, research, and business-oriented, containing personal letters and project details for Matthew's various collaborative philanthropic initiatives. Correspondence under Matthew's name is either written by Matthew or by an unidentified individual to Matthew. Correspondence to and from organizations and institutions pertain to Matthew's collaborative projects and personal relationships with those groups. For example, East Lake Community Foundation, Incorporated correspondence is primarily concerned with the public service announcement that Matthew drafted, but also contains more personal messages to individuals within that organization. Of particular note is correspondence with famous golfers such as Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, Dot Kirby, and the Yates family; correspondence with renowned golf institutions, such as the Augusta National Golf Club, the Royal & Ancient Golf Club, and the United States Golf Association; research correspondence with Presidents George H.W. Bush and Richard Nixon; and personal correspondence with Bobby Jones' daughter, Clara Jones Black, and grandson, Robert T. Jones IV.

Subseries 3.4

Research files, 1862-2012

Boxes 40-152

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of Sidney L. Matthew's research files, including correspondence and research notes relating to his written works, films, interviews, and other projects. Also included are files pertaining to his own publishing company, Impregnable Quadrilateral (IQ) Press, and to other publishing companies, including Ann Arbor Media Group and Sleeping Bear Press. Many of his files include personal and business-related correspondence and photographs. Of particular interest are the Augusta National Golf Club files and files relating to East Lake Golf Club and the East Lake Community Foundation, with whom Mr. Matthew collaborated to produce a Public Service Announcement narrated by Sir Sean Connery. Research notes concerning Bobby Jones' golf career, law and business interests, and personal life permeate this series but are concentrated in the "Jones, Robert T. 'Bobby' Jr." files. Matthew also collected information regarding Bobby Jones' fellow golfers such as Charles "Chick" Evans, Gene Sarazen, Watts Gunn, Alexa Stirling, and the Yates family and golf writers such as O.B. Keeler, Bernard Darwin, and Grantland Rice. Also of note are the files containing correspondence, notes, and writings from Matthew's fellow golf writers: Furman Bisher, Charles Price, John Barrett, Mark Frost, and Donald "Don" Veller.

Subseries 3.5

Writings by Sidney L. Matthew, 1923-2015

Boxes 153-167

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of drafts of Matthew's golf writings, one of which is under the pseudonym Angus "Wee Nip" McJigger. The majority of these writings are directly about Bobby Jones, but there are a few concerning contemporary golfers such as Tiger Woods and the broader history of golf including the history of golf club development. Of particular interest are the files relating to The Life and Times of Bobby Jones, Bobby Jones Extra!, and Secrets of the Master: Best of Bobby Jones, which include many drafts and revisions as well as documentation concerning the publishing and advertising processes. Matthew also used earlier writings by Bobby Jones, O.B. Keeler, and Grantland Rice in the composition of his own works; as these documents contain Matthew's notes and directly relate to his own writings, they are retained here rather than in Subseries 3.4: Research Files.
