Collection Description

Biographical Note

Jack Richard McMichael, Methodist minister, social activist and educator, was born February 25, 1917 in Quitman, Georgia, and died December 7, 1984 in West Virginia. McMichael served as chairman of the American Youth Congress (1939-1941), executive secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Action (MSFA; 1945-1953), editor of Social Questions Bulletin (1949-1960), and as a minister (1953-1964) in the California-Nevada Conference (1953-1964).

McMichael went on to teach philosophy and religion at Centre College, Danville, Kentucky (1965-1969), and philosophy, western civilization, and history at Concord College, Athens, West Virginia (1969-1984). The author of several articles, he also co-authored a book, The Writings of William Walwyn, which was published posthumously (1989).

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Jack Richard McMichael from 1933-1984. The papers include writings, correspondence, sermons, datebooks, speeches, photographs, printed material, and scrapbook. Manuscripts and some correspondence pertain to his research and subsequent writing of the book on William Walwyn. Manuscripts and some correspondence pertain to his research and subsequent writing of the book on William Walwyn. Some correspondence, periodicals, clippings, and speeches relate to his organizational work while the sermons and other correspondence are from his time as a minister. The appointment books contain handwritten notes and some are more detailed than others. Photographs are of McMichael, his family, and events. The scrapbook contains clippings, correspondence, and programs from his highschool and college days. Manuscripts were also published as McMichael, Jack R., The Writings of William Walwyn (Athens: University of Georgia Press, 1989).

Arrangement Note

Unprocessed collection; inventory available.
