Collection Description

Biographical Note

Sara Bedell Perry was born April 18, 1912 in Canton, Georgia, Cherokee County. After her parents divorced, Sara moved to Atlanta with her mother and spent her high school years here. Sara married George Raymond Mitchell in June of 1933 and had two children: Ray Mitchell Jr. and Susan Rogers Perry Mitchell. She served as president of the League of Women Voters of Atlanta from 1958-1963, and was awarded Atlanta's Good Neighbor of the Year 1965. She divorced in 1965 and married Thomas S. Parsons a Humboldt State University professor in December of 1968. She continued her social activism in Humboldt County, California until 1986 when she returned to Atlanta, Georgia. She was named 1994 Role Model of the Year by the Older Women's League in Atlanta. She published her memoir, From Southern Wrongs to Civil Rights in 2000.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Sara Mitchell Parsons from 1933-2002. The papers include correspondence, photographs, printed material, a scrapbook, and writings by Parsons. The bulk of the correspondence is from the late 1990s through 2002 and relates to her book, From Southern Wrongs to Civil Rights, and its publication. Notable in the correspondence are letters from the King family, including Martin Luther King Jr. The printed material, mostly newspaper clippings, documents education, segregation and the Civil Rights movement among others. Also in the collection are a small number of photographs, Sara Mitchell Parson's diaries from 1964 and 1970 and scrapbooks from her 1961 campaign for election to Atlanta Board of Education and a subsequent scrapbook about that election and service to the board through 1969

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
