Collection Description

Historical Note
Pressed Wafer is a small press founded in 1999 in Boston by poets Daniel Bouchard, William Corbett, and Joseph Torra. Bouchard works at MIT Press and is a poetry advocate and organizer. Corbett has taught in the Expository Writing program at Harvard University, was a writer-in-residence in the Program of Writing and Humanistic Studies at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and heads the literary program at CUE Art Foundation in Chelsea, New York City. Torra teaches English and Creative Writing at the University of Massachusetts in Boston. The press first published a poetry magazine and now specializes in poetry broadsides, postcards, chapbooks, and books. Bouchard, Corbett and Torra have been joined by book designer Michael Russem and the press currently operates out of Brooklyn, New York.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of the records of Pressed Wafer from 1994-2012 and includes administrative files, correspondence, author files and materials relating to edited compilations, printed material, artwork and photographs, and born digital material. Administrative files contain editorial records and notes, lists of authors affiliated with the press, financial records, and subscription information. Correspondence includes letters between Pressed Wafer editors, subscription requests, book orders, and comments about Pressed Wafer publications. Some correspondence pre-dates the official founding of the press. Where possible, author correspondence attached to typescripts and editorial proofs have been filed by author.

Born digital materials include artwork, photographs, and writings by various artists.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order by record type.
