Collection Description

Biographical Note

Oliver Franklin Reeves (1889-1963) was born in Lookout Mountain, Tennessee, and spent over forty years working as a marble contractor in Atlanta, Georgia. He wrote poetry which was published regularly in the Atlanta Constitution and was named Poet Laureate of Georgia in 1944 and of Atlanta in 1952.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of Oliver Franklin Reeves from 1936-1961. The papers include manuscripts of Reeves' writings (both published and unpublished); poems; addresses to various civic clubs and schools; scripts of plays; short stories and other works of prose; program materials for Atlanta (Ga.) radio station WAGA; and Lions Club materials pertaining to a newsletter he edited.

The papers also include photographs; biographical notes; clippings related to his writing career, particularly his column in the Atlanta Constitution; several magazines in which his writing appeared; correspondence relating to his efforts to have his poetry published (1936-1947) in such periodicals as the Saturday Evening Post and other letters (1938-1961) pertaining to his efforts to encourage the writing of other poets.

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
