Collection DescriptionBiographical Note

John Leo Reilly was born in Jersey City on June 8, 1939. He attended Seton Hall University (South Orange, New Jersey) and earned a master's degree in film from New York University (New York, New York). Reilly co-founded the Global Village Video Resource Center in New York City, a nonprofit video production group, in 1969 with Rudi Stern. It was one of the first places to watch independent "underground" video, and they hosted an annual documentary video festival from 1974 to 1989. He married Julie Gustafson, his producing partner, and later married Lauren Chambers. He had two children: Lars Reilly and Maire Gustafson.

Reilly's most famous documentary was Waiting for Beckett (1994) which was produced by Melissa Shaw-Smith. The documentary profiles Nobel prize-winning author and playwright Samuel Beckett. Under the guidance of Samuel Beckett and his American publisher Barney Rosset, the program features the only known footage of Beckett at work as well as performances of his work, rare archival footage, interviews, and excerpts from Beckett's letters. Peephole Art-Beckett for Television (1994) contains three full-length performances of Samuel Beckett's work written or adapted especially for the screen: Not I, Quad I & II, and What Where.

Samuel Beckett (1906-1989), Irish poet, novelist and playwright, was born in Foxrock, Ireland, a suburb of Dublin. He attended the Portora Royal School in Enniskillen and Trinity College Dublin. In 1927, Beckett moved to Paris and taught English at the École Normale Supérieure. In 1930, he published his first poem, "Whoroscope," and returned to Trinity College to teach French. In 1937, he returned to Paris permanently. Beckett continued to publish novels throughout the 1950s, 1960s, and 1970s. However, it is the plays he produced during this time for which he is perhaps best known. They include Waiting for Godot (1953), Endgame (1957), Krapp's Last Tape (1958) and Happy Days (1961). He won the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1969 and continued to write and publish poems and short stories until his death in 1989.

Publication Note

Collection is the raw material for John Reilly's works Waiting for Beckett (1994) and Peephole Art-Beckett for Television (1994)

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of 431 sound and video recordings of John Reilly's footage for documentaries with his organization, Global Village Video about Irish author Samuel Beckett. The recordings are the raw material for Reilly's works Waiting for Beckett and Peephole Art-Samuel Beckett. Included in these recordings are Beckett's plays: Endwords, Eh Joe, Krapp's Last Tape, Its Beginning to its End, and Waiting for Godot performed at San Quentin prison (California). There are interviews with actors and other notables such as Chris O'Neill, Walter Asmus, Bill Irwin, Steve Martin, John Miksak, Raymond Federman, and Edward Albee, as well as Beckett biographer James Knowlson. The collection also contains transcripts of some of the video and audio recordings as well as scripts for the documentaries.

Arrangement Note

Collection is unarranged.
