Collection Description

Historical Note

Evelyn G. Lowery, long time civil rights activist and wife of Reverend Joseph E. Lowery, founded SCLC/Women's Organizational Movement for Equality Now (SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.) in her home in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 12, 1979. Created as a way to encourage women's involvement and leadership in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the group dedicated itself primarily to serving the needs of women and families and developed programs to support family values, education, health awareness, and human rights. Members formed task forces and met monthly to discuss programs and plan events.

In 1980, SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. held its first annual Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner, an event honoring the achievements of civil rights and community leaders. Also in the 1980s, the group began a program of HIV and AIDS education and awareness. The first annual Conference on AIDS in the Black Community was held in 1986, and in 1988 the organization received a grant from the Centers for Disease Control to implement a national AIDS awareness program. For five years, SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. ran the National AIDS Minority Information and Education Program, commonly known as the National AIDS Program, in six cities across the country. The group also was the recipient of a multi-year grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation that enabled them to establish the Family Life Learning Center in Atlanta. The center offered literacy classes and GED study courses, as well as job training and after school programs. The organization hosted other programs designed to increase knowledge of the Civil Rights Movement, including a civil rights heritage tour offered annually on the anniversary weekend of the first Selma to Montgomery March. Finally, throughout the 1980s and 1990s, the group held an annual conference, Strengthening the Black Family, focusing on topics such as teenage pregnancy, child abuse, and youth drug use, and their effects on African American families.

As National Convener, Evelyn Lowery was the chief administrative officer of SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. Lowery was responsible for a significant portion of program planning and management, and her work was supported by a small number of administrative staff. The Family Life Learning Center and National AIDS Program each were large enough to require program directors and dedicated staff. Program directors reported directly to Lowery.

In 1989, SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. incorporated as a separate organization with the State of Georgia. Though officially a distinct 501(c)(3) organization, the group continued to function as a part of SCLC throughout the 1990s, sharing some staff and reporting to SCLC's Board of Directors. In the mid-1990s, the organization raised money for and built a new building to house their offices on Auburn Avenue. They continue to operate from this location.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the records of SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. from 1965-2013 including administrative records, program files, and printed material. The collection documents the day-to-day operation of the SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. offices, as well as the planning and management of programs and events. Administrative records contain correspondence, memoranda, meeting minutes and agenda, and reports, as well as files relating to SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s annual planning retreat and their participation in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's annual convention. Administrative records are primarily those of National Convener Evelyn G. Lowery and her administrative assistant Amethyst Wynn. Program files document the programs, projects, and events hosted or sponsored by SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. Files include the records of the major programmatic offerings of the organization such as the Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner, Drum Major for Justice Annual Golf Classic, the Civil Rights Heritage Tour, and the Family Life Learning Center, among many others. There are also records relating to SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s local and international political involvement, including their support for Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney and their participation in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa. The records also document the organization's various job training programs, youth outreach activities, and community events.

Due to the volume and complexity of the records of the National AIDS Program, these have been arranged in a separate series. These records document the management of each of the six national program sites, as well as the management of the overall program from the national site in Atlanta. Records in the series include correspondence, reports, meeting minutes and agendas, memoranda, and subject files documenting program planning and community outreach. The series also highlights one major initiative of the program, Reducing AIDS through Community Education, or R.A.C.E., and includes two AIDS knowledge surveys, one conducted in 1988 at the beginning of the program and one conducted in the early 1990s as part of R.A.C.E. The completed surveys provide a small window into popular knowledge of HIV and AIDS at that time.

Printed material includes fliers, posters, pamphlets, programs, posters, newsletters, brochures, and other material documenting SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s programs, as well as material collected by the organization relating to topics relevant to their work, primarily HIV and AIDS education. The collection includes a small number of files relating to other organizations, including Cascade United Methodist Church and the National Council of Negro Women, that illuminate SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s work with these groups. Unprocessed additions to this collection are closed to researchers. Some audio and video recordings of SCLC/W.O.M.E.N., including recordings of their annual convention luncheon, AIDS Forum, and Strengthening the Black Family conference, can be found in the Southern Christian Leadership Conference records.

Arrangement Note

Organized into six series: (1) Administrative records, (2) Program records, (3) National AIDS Program records, (4) Printed material and (5) Related organization and program files, (6) Unprocessed additions.

Administrative records, 1965-1998
Boxes 1 - 10 and 58 - 62; OP1

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of the administrative records of SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. from 1965-1998 and documents the general management and operations of the organization. The series contains meeting minutes, agendas, memoranda, calendars, and notebooks, as well as numerous mailing lists. Correspondence contained in this series is of a general nature and is predominantly that of National Convener, Evelyn G. Lowery. Annual convention files document SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s involvement in the planning and execution of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference's yearly meeting, and may contain correspondence relating to the event. Correspondence of a more specific and focused nature may also be found in the annual planning retreat and grant files. The notebooks in this series are those of Evelyn Lowery's administrative assistant Amethyst Wynn and offer a day-by-day glimpse of SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s activities from 1990-1994. The series also contains the small amount of records of the task forces responsible for carrying out much of the programming work of the organization.

Series 2
Program records, 1980-1997
Boxes 11 - 24

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of materials documenting the programs and events held by SCLC/W.O.M.E.N. from 1980-1997. Files contain correspondence, drafts of brochures and fliers, speeches, biographical information, memoranda, and meeting minutes relating to the planning and execution of each event. Programs documented in the series include the annual Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner, Drum Major for Justice Golf Classic, Civil Rights Heritage Tour, Family Life Learning Center, and national oratorical contest. There are also records relating to SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s local and international political involvement, including their support for Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney and their participation in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa. The records also document the organization's various job training programs, youth outreach activities, and community events. For records relating to the National AIDS Program, see series three.

Arrangement Note

Organized into two subseries: (2.1) Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner and Golf Classic records and (2.2) Other program records

Subseries 2.1Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner and Golf Classic records, 1982-1996
Boxes 11 - 16*Scope and Content Note

The series consists of the records and planning files of the Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner and Golf Classic from 1982-1996. Files contain correspondence, committee information and meeting minutes, drafts of programs and other promotional material, mailing lists, and participant biographies. The Drum Major for Justice Awards Dinner is held annually on the anniversary weekend of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s assassination. The name of the award derives from King's February 1968 speech, "The Drum Major Instinct," in which he said, "Yes, if you want to say that I was a drum major, say that I was a drum major for justice." Each year, civil rights and community leaders are recognized for their service and achievements in categories such as business, labor, government, communications, arts, and sports. Awardees include both well-known national leaders and local community activists.

The subseries also includes the records and planning files of the Drum Major for Justice Annual Golf Classic. Files contain correspondence, committee information and meeting minutes, mailing lists, and participant information. The golf tournament primarily was a fundraiser for SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s scholarship program. Over time, both the date of the competition and its name changed. For the purposes of the subseries title, the golf competition is called Drum Major for Justice Golf Classic, but folder titles within the subseries reflect the name changes.

Other program records, 1980-1997
Boxes 17 - 24

Scope and Content Note

The subseries consists of the records and planning files for other programs and events offered by SCLC/W.O.M.E.N., including the Family Life Learning Center, Civil Rights Heritage Tour, national oratorical competition, and the Strengthening the Black Family Conference. Files include correspondence, memoranda, meeting minutes, drafts of brochures and promotional material, financial records and grant applications. The records in this subseries document SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s local and international political involvement, including their support for Congresswoman Cynthia McKinney and their participation in the struggle against apartheid in South Africa. The records also document the organization's various job training programs, youth outreach activities, and community events. The Civil Rights Heritage Tour had a variety of names over the years, and for ease of use is here referred to only as the Civil Rights Heritage Tour. Changes to programs, and/or their relationships to other programs have been parenthetically noted with "[See also...]".

Series 3National AIDS Minority Information and Education Program records, 1967-1995
Boxes 25 - 47 and 63; OP1*Scope and Content Note

The series consists of the records of the National AIDS Minority Information and Education Program, more commonly referred to as the National AIDS Program, from 1967-1995. The program was a multi-year, grant-funded project that emphasized church and community involvement in the fight against HIV/AIDS. The series includes the records of National Convener Evelyn G. Lowery, National Program Coordinator Maurice O'Brien Franklin, Atlanta Program Site Coordinator Margi Shannon, and Administrative Assistant Washiri Ajanaku. Ajanaku initially served as assistant to the first National Coordinator, Barbara Taylor-Hines, and these records contain substantial documentation of Taylor-Hines' work. Files in each section include correspondence, reports, meeting minutes and agenda, memoranda, and subject files documenting program planning and community outreach.

The program was managed from SCLC/W.O.M.E.N.'s national office in Atlanta, Georgia, and there were six additional program sites: Atlanta, Georgia; Charlotte, North Carolina; Dayton, Ohio; Detroit, Michigan; Kansas City, Missouri; and Tuscaloosa, Alabama. The records for the Atlanta program site are the most significant in volume. Other program sites are documented primarily through reports and Maurice Franklin's records, though there are additional materials included with the records of the other staff members. The series also highlights one major initiative of the program, Reducing AIDS through Community Education, or R.A.C.E. The majority of these records also can be found with Maurice Franklin's files. Also included in the series are two AIDS knowledge surveys, one conducted in 1988 at the beginning of the program and one conducted in the early 1990s as part of R.A.C.E. The completed surveys provide a small window into popular knowledge of HIV and AIDS at that time. Finally, there is significant documentation relating to the procurement and management of several federal grants that funded the program.
