Collection Description

Biographical Note
Dora Helen Skypek, educator, was born on September 18, 1915. She was educated at the Florida State College for Women (Bachelor of Arts, 1937), Emory University (Master of Arts, 1961), and the University of Wisconsin (Doctor of Philosophy, 1966). Skypek served on the faculty of Emory University's Division of Educational Studies, pursued a special interest in mathematics education, and retired in 1983 with the rank of full professor. Skypek died on February 14, 1996.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of the papers of Dora Helen Skypek from 1959 to 1983. The papers include correspondence and office files. The files begin during the time of Skypek’s graduate study at Emory, but they consist primarily of personal and professional correspondence documenting her faculty activities at Emory and her professional associations and activities, especially those relating to education and to women at Emory.

Arrangement Note
Unprocessed collection.
