Collection Description

Biographical Note
Derek Stanford was born in Lampton, England on October 11, 1918, to Richard James and Ada Stanford. Stanford attended Upper Latymer Scool in London. He then married Margaret Holdsworth, poet, who publishes under the name Margaret Philips. Stanford served as a lecturer at the City Literary Institute, London, as a lecturer in literature and creative writing from 1957-1969, as well as an art history teacher and an adult education teacher. Stanford's memoir, Inside the 'Forties, chronicles his literary life between 1937 and 1957.

Scope and Content Note
The collection consists of some personal and literary papers of Derek Stanford from 1938 to 1979. The papers include correspondence, literary notebooks, literary manuscripts and typescripts, and collected printed material. Of particular note are manuscripts and background materials for The Weather Within and Time Is a Place.

Arrangement Note
Organized into three series: (1) Correspondence, (2) Works by Stanford, and (3) Printed material.
Description of Series

Series 1: Correspondence, 1938-1979
Series 3: Printed material
Series 1
Correspondence, 1938-1979
Box 1: folders 1-5

Scope and Content Note
The correspondence series includes letters Derek Stanford between 1938 and 1979. Significant correspondence includes letters between Stanford and friends, and article subjects, John Bayliss, John Heath-Stubbs, Hugo Manning, and Robert Nye. Correspondence also includes letters from The British Council in regard to a recording of Stanford's poems.

Arrangement Note
Arranged in chronological order.

Series 2
Works by Stanford, 1949-1980
Box 1: folder 6 - Box 6: folder 9

Scope and Content Note
The series consists of writings by Stanford from 1949-1980, and includes journals, notebooks, collected, collected and uncollected prose fiction, essays, and reviews. The series begins with Stanford's Selected Poems, then continues with notebooks containing draft material, manuscripts, and proofs of collected fiction, essays, and reviews. The series ends with uncollected fiction, introductions, and essays.

Stanford's collected prose is arranged chronologically by date of publication, and includes notebooks, manuscript and/or typescript versions of the pieces, and clean copies of the final version. Given Stanford's tendency to write multiple essays or reviews in a single notebook, notebooks are organized by first entry with connected entries for each subsequent piece. Stanford's essays are arranged chronologically by date of publication or lecture delivery. The reviews are arranged alphabetically by book author.

Arrangement Note
Arranged by record type.

Series 3
Printed material
Box 6: folders 10-14

Scope and Content Note
The published materials in this series include works by Stanford, works about Stanford, and a small collection of miscellaneous published material. Publications of Stanford's essays and reviews are collected in poetry magazines and periodicals. Works about Stanford contains reviews of his memoir In the 'Forties. The "other" category collects items Stanford preserved: a pamphlet on the "Front Line Generation," which includes Stanford in a list of "Writers of Tomorrow," and a program for "Jubilee Poetry at the Wigmore," at which his friend Peter Redgrove presented.
