Collection Description

Biographical Note

William Anderson Stephens (d. March 15, 1865) entered the Confederate Army in April or May of 1862 in the 46th Alabama Infantry Regiment organized at Camp Shorter in May 1862. He served in the Chattanooga-Knoxville area until September 1862 when he went on Bragg's Kentucky campaign, then to Murfreesboro in early December. From there he went to Vicksburg where he was captured at the fall of the city. He was paroled and sent to Demopolis, Alabama, and was exchanged in October 1862. He fought in Georgia, May-September 1864 in the Atlanta Campaign, followed Hood to Tennessee, was captured, probably at Nashville, and sent to Johnson's Island where he died March 15, 1865 and was buried at Sanduskey, Ohio. He was a lieutenant at the time of his death. E. B. Stephens, William's brother, was a prison guard and may or may not have been a regular soldier. Thomas Stephens, perhaps another brother, died while stationed "at Evins Port" in late 1861 or early 1862.

Mrs. William Anderson Stephens was the former Susan Hodnett. Susan had five brothers: John W. Hodnett, who served in Co. K, 13th Georgia Infantry Regiment and died of smallpox on December 10, 1862; T. J. Hodnett; S. G. Hodnett; W. H. Hodnett; and G. T. Hodnett, all of whom served in the Confederate Army. B. F. Hodnett may have been another brother. John A. Hodnett, Co. H, 14th Alabama Infantry Regiment, and H. H. Hodnett were cousins of Susan and her brothers and were also soldiers.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of a microfilm copy of the papers of William Anderson Stephens from 1862-1865. The papers include 106 letters: 52 letters by William Anderson Stephens, addressed to his wife, Susan, but usually written to the whole family, May 18, 1862-February 22, 1865; 1 letter by E. B. Stephens to Susan, his sister-in-law, February 22, 1863; 27 letters by John W. Hodnett, July 23, 1861-October 16, 1862; 6 letters by T. J. Hodnett, August 19, 1862-December 10, 1863; 4 letters by S. G. Hodnett, February 10, 1862-June 28, 1863; 3 letters by W. H. Hodnett, March 29, 1863; 1 letter by G. T. Hodnett, March 29, 1863; 4 letters by H. H. Hodnett, December 14, 1861-March 10, 1862; 1 letter by John A. Hodnett, January 19, 1862; 1 letter by Mary Hodnett to Susan Hodnett Stephens, April 10, 1863; 2 pre-war and 3 post-war letters. Included also are 3 ballads. The letters are fairly typical of the rural, unlettered, home-loving Confederate soldier being concerned with life, food, rumors of troop movements, news of neighbors also serving in the army, and concern for the welfare of home and family.

Arrangement Note

Letters organized into groups by name of writer, then arranged in chronological order within each group.
