Collection Description

Historical Note

The Alfred Holt Colquitt Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy is a part of the Georgia Division of the United Daughters of the Confederacy.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of photocopies of material collected and compiled by members of the Alfred Holt Colquitt Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, 1833-1976. The majority of the collection consists of typescripts and photocopies of Civil War letters, diaries and service records. Also included are brochures and maps of significant Georgia Civil War sites. Of particular interest is the diary written by Basil Llewelin Neal, a Confederate soldier in the 12th Georgia Infantry Regiment, while imprisoned at Point Lookout, Maryland in 1863-1864. The collection also includes several letters that describe the Andersonville prison in Georgia.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.
