Collection Description

Biographical Note

Walter Francis White (1893-1955), was an African American civil rights activist and leader of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) from 1931-1955. Walter White married Leah Gladys Powell (1893-1979) in 1922, and they had two children, Jane (1922-) and Walter Carl Darrow (1927-1975). Gladys Powell White worked as a stenographer in the NAACP offices in New York City, and also performed on stage, most notably in the Broadway production Deep River, in 1926. In 1948, Walter and Gladys White divorced, and shortly after Walter White married Poppy Cannon, a magazine editor. Jane became an actress and performed in the theater, and on television and film, from the 1940s through the 1990s. Jane White married Alfredo Viazzi in 1962. He died in 1977 of a heart attack. Walter Carl Darrow was also an actor, and lived in Germany for the majority of his life.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the family papers of Walter and Gladys Powell White from 1890-2010, including audiovisual material, baby books for Jane and Carl White, correspondence, legal material, and photographs. Correspondence consists primarily of letters to Jane White regarding permissions for her father's estate. There are few pieces of correspondence between family members. Legal material contains birth certificates, marriage announcements, divorce papers, and death certificates of various family members. The photographs are primarily of Gladys Powell's family and the children, Jane and Carl.

Arrangement Note

Unprocessed collection.
