Collection Description

Biographical Note

Cary B. Wilmer (1905-1988), resident of Atlanta, Georgia, began his career as a reporter in the 1920's. After developing an interest in cameras and photography in the 1950's, he became a professional photographer and recorded many Atlanta landmarks, major events in the city, and prominent Atlantans.

Emory Libraries provides copies of its finding aids for use only in research and private study. Copies supplied may not be copied for others or otherwise distributed without prior consent of the holding repository.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of papers of Cary B. Wilmer from 1936-1979. The papers consist of finished photographs; slides; negatives; and miscellaneous items of correspondence, including a number of letters to Wilmer from Margaret Mitchell (1936-1943). The collection also includes clippings, printed material, and memorabilia. The photographs, which comprise the bulk of the collection, record social life, civic events and people in Atlanta, Georgia, from ca. 1956-1976, including Gone With the Wind celebrations (1939, 1961, 1967); Atlanta landmarks and skyline; The Ten Club; and Metropolitan Opera parties (ca. 1956-1976)

Arrangement Note

Arranged by record type.
