Collection Description*Biographical Note

Charles Rupert Wood (1909-1981) was born in Newville, Alabama. He attended Tuskegee Institute (now Tuskegee University) in Alabama and was the first licensed African American electrician in Atlanta, Georgia, as well as co-owner of Johnson and Wood Electric Company in Atlanta. Wood married Nettie Ruth Carr (1911-2011), the daughter of Paul Carr and Helen (Keith) Carr, and a graduate of Shaw University (Raleigh, North Carolina) and Atlanta University. The couple had four children: Charles Rupert Wood, Jr., Harry Keith Wood, Jeanie Marie Wood Shuffett, and Lynn Danielle Wood.

Scope and Content Note

The collection consists of the papers of the Charles R. and Ruth C. Wood family from circa 1900-2014 and includes school records, correspondence, financial records, printed material, and photographs. Correspondence contains letters between Charles and his mother while he was attending Tuskegee; Ruth and one of her sons while he was serving in the Vietnam War; and letters between Ruth and Charles and other friends and family. There is also a significant amount of correspondence belonging to Helen Carr, a relative of Ruth. Printed material includes yearbooks and ephemera from Tuskegee University and Booker T. Washington High School in Atlanta. There is also a small amount of printed material advertising the Johnson and Wood Electric Company.

Arrangement Note

Organized into 5 series: (1) Correspondence, (2) Personal and financial papers, (3) Helen and Paul Carr papers, (4) Photographs, and (5) Printed materials.

Correspondence, 1927-2011
Boxes 1-5, OP1

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of correspondence sent to and by the Wood family from 1927 to 2011. The correspondence is primarily of a personal nature. There are a large number of letters from the late 1930s between Charles Wood and Elaine McGregor, a student at the Tuskegee Institute in Alabama. There is a significant amount of material related to Jean Marie Wood's college admissions in 1967 and Harry Wood's search for industrial employment in 1970. There are also letters between Ruth Wood and Carrie Newkirk of North Carolina, a personal friend, in the 1980s, and letters to Ruth Wood from her grandchildren in the 2000s.

Series 3
Paul and Helen Carr papers, 1940-1996
Boxes 16-17

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of the papers of Paul and Helen Carr from 1931-1996. Included are correspondence, documents about farming, and personal and financial records. There are also printed materials, handwritten notes, and documents from Lott Carey Baptist Mission of which the Carrs were members. Correspondence consists of greeting cards, letters from friends and family members, letters from Baptist ministers and religious associations, and notes from members of the Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Mission Convention. The majority of the letters are to Helen from her children: Frank, Sarah, Helen, and Ruth. Letters from Baptist ministers touch upon Mrs. Carr's devotion. The Woman's Baptist Home and Foreign Mission Convention correspondence consist mostly of updates of the organization but often the correspondents inquire about Mrs. Carr. Agricultural records include promotional material from the Conservation Reserve Soil Bank the Department of Agriculture, forms for compensation, and material pertaining to increasing acreage. Lott Carey Baptist Mission Materials include promotional brochures and booklets, meeting minutes, promotional letters, and a list of committees for the mission group. Financial Materials consist of account books, a check stub, receipts, and a notice of acreage allotment. Printed Materials contain primarily devotional materials. Handwritten notes include reminders, financial notes, snippets of poems, and a letter on Christian mission. Some notes are incomplete.

Series 5*Printed material, 1890, 1933-2010 [bulk 1964-1989]*Boxes 24-28, 30, OP 8-17*Scope and Content Note

The series consists of printed materials collected by the Wood family. Included are serials, programs, proceedings, and sheet music. Of particular note are materials created by the Providence Missionary Baptist Church, with which the family, including the Carrs, was significantly involved. Administrative records contain copies of the by-laws and constitution for the Know your Neighbor club as well as an annual report for the Highlander Research and Education Center. Booklets cover topics such as religion and medical and include a small almanac. Personal programs include wedding programs and a child's recital while the educational programs include information on Founders Day, Alumni Days, orientations, and awards services. There are baccalaureate and commencement programs from schools including Booker T. Washington High School and Benjamin E. Mays High School in Atlanta, Tuskegee Institute, University of Connecticut, University of Tulsa, and the United States Military Academy among others.
