Appraisal Note

University Archivist, Ginger Cain, acquired the collection as part of the Rose Library's holdings in Atlanta, Georgia, history. All material received with the collection has been retained.

Processing

Arranged and described at the series level by staff in 2001. Meaghan O'Riordan edited the legacy description and completed additional description, 2020-2021. To facilitate access, O'Riordan created series for individual programs with a significant number of recordings then organized the remaining audio recordings into six subject-based categories: politics, news, music, sports, religion, and a catch-all category titled "Investigative series, award entries, special programs, and other shows." However, many tapes could potentially fit into one or more of the categories, so there may be overlap across the topical series, as well as with the series for the programs. For example, many of the politicians featured in the politics series (series 8) were also interviewed on the Merry Go Round morning show (series 1).

Collection Description

Historical Note

WSB was the first radio station in the South. The station made its first broadcast on March 15, 1922, two years after the first radio station in the country, KDKA in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, received its call letters. Atlanta, Georgia's, afternoon newspaper, The Atlanta Journal, owned WSB, and the station initially broadcast from a room in the newspaper's building on Forsyth Street. Three years later, WSB moved into the penthouse of the recently completed Biltmore Hotel on West Peachtree Street. In 1955 WSB relocated to "White Columns," the new home of WSB Radio and TV.

Known as "The Voice of the South," WSB became an affiliate of the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) in 1927. In 1938 NBC split its Red (entertainment) and Blue (cultural) networks into two separate offerings, allowing radio stations to only carry one network. WSB decided to carry the NBC Red network programming while The Atlanta Journal bought the license of another station, WAGA (now known as WPLO) to carry the Blue network.

In 1933 the station increased its transmitter to 50,000 watts. After the boost in power, WSB was humorously known as "the Blowtorch of the South" because it was heard not only throughout the South and the rest of the country but also as far away as South America, Australia, and New Zealand.

In 1939 former Ohio governor, James M. Cox, bought The Atlanta Journal and WSB. After Cox bought the radio station, it became a strong voice for the Democratic Party both locally and nationally. In 1964, Cox Broadcasting Company (CBC) was created. The CBC included a total of five VHF (very high frequency) television stations, five AM radio stations, and four FM radio stations scattered in cities like Atlanta (Georgia), Dayton (Ohio), Charlotte (North Carolina), Pittsburgh (Pennsylvania), Miami (Florida), San Francisco (California), and Los Angeles (California). WSB-AM and FM, as well as The Atlanta Journal-Constitution, remain part of Cox Media Group.

Scope and Content Note

The WSB collection consists of audio recordings of a variety of programs broadcast on WSB AM and FM channels from 1935-1986. Also included is a small amount of paper material, including photographs, show notes, printed material, correspondence, and speeches.

The audio recordings include significant runs of WSB shows Merry Go Round, Sound Off, The World Today, Sounds of Atlanta, Minority Perspective, and Women's World. Also included are recordings of what WSB called "Special Days" programming, which they did to celebrate a holiday - often invented by them - each day.

Merry Go Round was a morning show that featured interviews with notable people and included politicians, actors, musicians, authors, journalists, and comedians. Sound Off, The World Today, Sounds of Atlanta, Minority Perspective, and Women's World all appear to be shows focused on discussions of current affairs and hot button issues, and each show provides a different perspective on those issues and events.

There are a significant number of recordings on the broad themes of politics, news, music, sports, and religion. Politics segments feature recorded debates, campaign speeches, and interviews from the municipal level to the federal level and include prominent Georgia politicians. News stories reflect local crime and weather, plane crashes and hijackings, fires, and traffic. Music recordings include both recordings of songs and music related programs. Sports stories are primarily comprised of stories about the Atlanta Braves (Georgia) and Henry "Hank"

Aaron. Recordings relating to religion include church services, as well as such programs as L'chaim to Life, Midnight Minister, Suffer the Little Children, and This Is My Religion.

WSB records include photographs and show notes. Photographs are primarily of radio transmitters from 1941-1948. Show notes often list topics and interview subjects and may be able to be matched to tapes using dates of the tape numbers.

Arrangement Note

The collection is divided into fourteen series: (1) Merry Go Round audio recordings, (2) Sound Off audio recordings, (3) The World Today audio recordings, (4) Sounds of Atlanta audio recordings, (5) Minority Perspective audio recordings, (6) "Special Days" audio recordings, (7) Women's World audio recordings, (8) Politics audio recordings, (9) News audio recordings, (10) Music audio recordings, (11) Sports audio recordings, (12) Religion audio recordings, (13) Investigative series, award entries, special programs, and other shows audio recordings, and (14) WSB records.

Series 1Merry Go Round* audio recordings, 1972-1979*2,234 tapes (across 82 boxes)*Scope and Content Note

The Merry Go Round audio recordings series consists of tapes of the complete interviews conducted for WSB-AM's morning show. Each morning the show featured interviews with local personalities as well as national and international celebrities. These included politicians (Atlanta, Georgia, mayors Ivan Allen, Jr., Maynard Jackson, and Sam Massell; Governor (Georgia) Jimmy Carter, and Representative (5th District, Georgia) Andrew Young), musicians (Eartha Kitt, Earl Scruggs, Tom T. Hall, Roger Whittaker, and Andy Williams), authors (Richard Adams, James Dickey, Sheila Graham, and Hal Gulliver), actors (Michael Caine, Burt Reynolds, and Buffalo Bob Smith), educators (Sanford Atwood, Alonzo Crim, and John Letson), sports figures (Bernie "Boom Boom" Geoffrion, Jack Nelson, and Richard Petty), and other personalities (Paul Anderson, George Gallup, Morganna, and Sheriff Buford T. Pusser).

These interviews were usually conducted a day or two before broadcast. After the interview was completed, WSB staff selected portions of the interview to play during the show, and they created cue sheets for the engineers to use to drop the selected parts into the broadcast.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.

Processing Note

Series 2
Sound Off* audio recordings, 1967-1986
481 tapes (across 72 boxes)

Scope and Content Note

The series consists of audio recordings of the Sound Off program. Sound Off featured opinionated discussions on topics and events with WSB staff and invited guests (typically experts on the subject) through a local lens. Topics included subjects such as abortion, Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority (MARTA) (Georgia), heart disease, finance, traffic, alcoholism, crime, the economy, healthcare, housing, the environment, the military, education, and the 1979-1981 Atlanta (Georgia) child murders.

Series 6
"Special Days" audio recordings, 1966-1970
186 tapes (across 15 boxes)

Scope and Content Note

The "Special Days" audio recordings series consists of tapes of material recorded for WSB's "Special Day" segments. WSB featured "Special Day" segments, such as farm day or ice cream day, to promote community projects and campaigns in station identifications. These segments often include guests who are representatives of benevolent community organizations.

Arrangement Note

Arranged in chronological order.

Processing Note

Most tapes cover a week or more worth of days and the boxes have a detailed list of "holidays" for each day covered on the tape. To make the container list easier to navigate, O'Riordan did not transcribe the list of special days for each tape.

Series 11
Sports audio recordings, 1965-1985
257 tapes (across 78 boxes)

Scope and Content Note

The sports audio recordings series contains recordings of local sports events and personalities. A significant portion of the recordings are about the Atlanta Braves (Georgia) and Henry "Hank" Aaron. There are also a significant number of recordings on the 1967 all-time heavyweight tournament, as well as the Atlanta Hawks (Georgia).

Arrangement Note

Arranged in alphabetical order.

Series 13Investigative series, award entries, special programs, and other shows audio recordings, 1952-1986
2,949 tapes (across 200 boxes)*Scope and Content Note

The investigative series, award entries, special programs, and other audio recordings series consists of shorter runs of programs, tapes submitted for award entries, and one-off specials. The shorter programs include Black Almanac, Man in Space, Personal Opinion, School Spirit, Second Sunday, and Shining Light Awards. The WSB correspondents most frequently represented in the series are Elmo Ellis, Mike Faherty, Dan Fitzpatrick, Chuck Hussion, Bob Ketchersid, Tom MacCabe, Aubrey Morris, Bob Mohan, Reg Murphy, J. Leonard Reinsch, Kaleka (Morgan) Rogers, Dave Ross, John Sterling, and Bob Van Camp. Also included is a significant number of recordings featuring WSB birthday/anniversary specials, material on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and his family, traffic and transportation, education, and health. There are a number of recordings that are unidentified, both with and without dates; many of these may be a part of one of the shows or related to the topics of other series in the collection but were not labeled as such. Also included are recordings that WSB submitted for award consideration and for which that was the only information available on the original tapes.
